5. Additional information

- ◆ The Tanashi No. 3 Junior High students made Christmas and New Year's cards. The New Year's cards had illustrations depicting Japanese culture, such as daruma dolls and maneki-neko cats.
- ◆ The Mid Peninsula students created cards with drawings depicting the characteristics of Michigan, a state rich in nature and known for heavy snowfall in winter, or cards celebrating Christmas. Some even included Japanese greetings written in katakana or kanji.
