5. Additional information

- ◆ During the presentation on Taiwan, the session included interactive exchanges between the international student and Minami-oosawa Gakuen students, with active participation during the question and answer session.
- ◆ The students danced to a parody song taught by a representative from the Japan-Taiwan Educational Center. The student representatives also gave short presentations on Mandarin.
- ◆ After the exchange, students wrote message cards in English about their impressions of Taiwanese culture, food, and tourist spots, and made comments such as, "I'd like to visit there someday."
