5. Additional information

- ◆ Eleven groups gave self-introductions and exchanged gifts during the welcome ceremony. The students used each others' native languages to have a cultural exchange.
- ◆ Students were divided into three groups to tour the school and observe classes.
- ◆ The Korean high schoolers visited student clubs such as the computer club (creating videos), shodo, dance, illustration, and band. They enjoyed participating in each of the clubs and deepening exchange as the students had many similar interests.
