5. Additional information

◆ The Shimura No. 6 students gave a choir performance during the welcome ceremony. Their performance was followed by a lively “Rock-Paper-Scissors Train,” during which students encouraged one another in English.

◆ Over the two-day exchange, the students participated together in lessons and activities, including traditional Japanese games. The Shimura No. 6 students actively communicated with the Hsinchu County Erchong students, often using gestures to explain rules and procedures.

◆ During school lunch, the Shimura No. 6 students explained the menu and Japanese lunch customs.

◆ At the farewell ceremony, many Shimura No. 6 students responded enthusiastically when the Taiwanese principal invited them to visit Taiwan in the future.
